

Residence Eleven - The Cottage

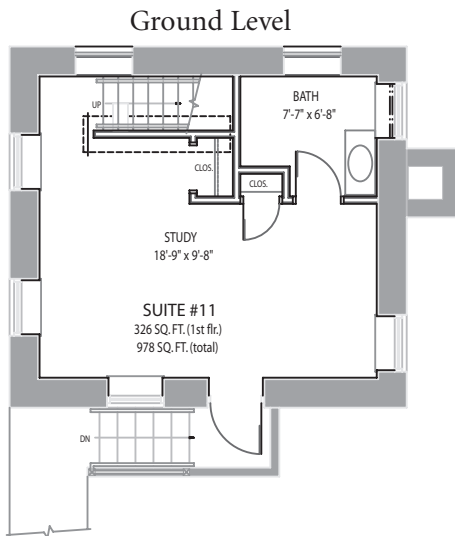

978 Square Feet

Three Story – One or Two Bedroom

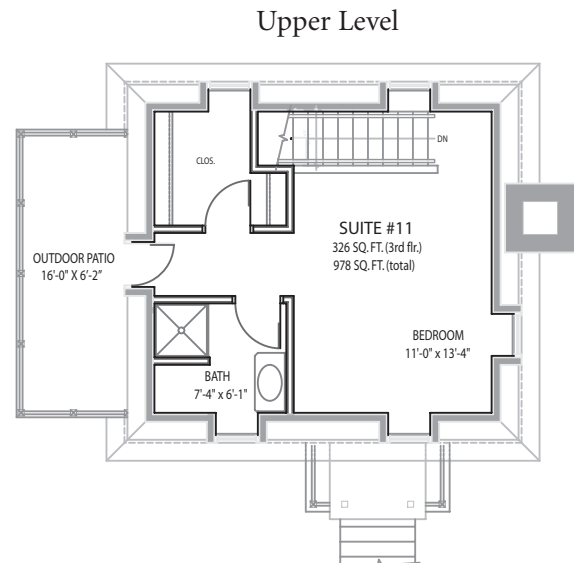

Take residence in The Cottage, Mount Prospect's stone constructed, mansard, slate-style roof home located on the rear grounds of the estate. The lower level of The Cottage offers a study that features exposed stone walls and massive deep-cut windows that provide natural light. The room, which also includes a bath, provides a great environment for a living room, office or media room. The main level of the house includes a kitchen and an adjoining room that can be used as a living room or dining room. The upper level makes for a delightful bedroom suite, complete with walk-in closet and a large outdoor deck oriented for sunset views.
